2. Defendants Boris Chinchilla-Linares and Jose Domingo-Castro were indicted on February 6, 2008. The indictment alleges that, on or about January 28, 2008, defendants, for the purpose of private financial gain, knowing and in reckless disregard of the fact that certain aliens had come to, entered, and remained in the United States in violation of law, did transport and move such aliens, namely 10 nationals from Mexico, Guatemala and El Salvador, within the United States by means of transportation and otherwise, in furtherance of such violation of law, n violation of Title 8, United States Code, Sections 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii) and 1324(a)(1)(B)(I), and Title 18, United States Code, Section 2.

3. The defendants are not yet scheduled for arraignment.

4. The following individuals are currently in the administrative custody of the Department of Homeland Security, Immigrations and Customs Enforcement, and are subject to imminent deportation. However, these individuals have information material to the prosecution of the defendants. Therefore, the government respectfully requests that this Court issue material witness warrants for the following individuals:
